From Your President . . .

Dear Artists,

A huge round of applause for Cheryl Hipke and the Committee on a spectacular 50th Annual Christmas Arts and Crafts Market!! The atmosphere was amazing, and many new friendships were made. Thank you to all who made the Market a huge success!!

Hopefully, many of you attended the recent SHAST event as well. Several members of the Association welcomed the public into their studios for an intimate meet and greet.

Officers will be elected at the November general meeting. Please plan to attend and cast your vote!! November will be the last general meeting in 2018. December's general meeting will be the Christmas Party and installation of officers. Thank you to all Officers and Directors who have served this year and for all of the hard work and dedication to the Association.

Tammy Troyer
President

A Very Special Thank You

To everyone who took part in and supported NCAA at our 50th Annual Christmas Arts & Crafts Market earlier this month at the Fairgrounds, a massive THANK YOU!

It was truly was "A Golden Christmas" event, and we are chuffed to have been able to accommodate 60 vendors, who offered the most amazing variety of merchandise, and to have been able to feature some new activities this year.

A special thank you to the planning committee, donors, vendors, classroom instructors & demonstrators, volunteers, Fairgrounds staff, and Stamps Store Fixtures. Without all of them and their generosity, this event would not be possible.

We have already reserved the same space for 2019 and will begin planning as soon as we catch a breath! All suggestions are welcome.

And lastly, I would like to thank "Mr. Personality" (William Odell Crenshaw), Newnan's Goodwill Ambassador, for the unique manner in which he advertised our event, both with handouts and a few 'plugs' on his weekly radio show.

"Remembering Those Who Served"

In Honor of Veterans Day

by watercolor artist Suzy Pal Powell

We are grateful to all our courageous service men and women who choose to serve, even though their job puts their life at risk for the sake of others.

People's choices define their character. Things such as commitment, honesty, loyalty, faithfulness, integrity, selflessness, compassion, putting others before themselves — honor, duty, and sacrifice for the greater good. These are all choices, and they all come with a cost.

Thank you, veterans, for answering the call to serve and for the love you show to your country and for your fellow man.

NOVEMBER 15th MEETING

GUEST PRESENTER — Renee Merrifield

vinyl & paper creations

www.facebook.com/chicpeach17/

Renee Merrifield is a local crafter and mother of amazing 7-year old twins. She is the daughter of Margo Merrifield, a local painter who has an amazing talent, and whom Renee credits as being a huge influence in her love of crafting and creating new things. She inherited a small bit of her mom's creative gene with her crafting talent.

Renee grew up "making" things all the time with her mom and Grandmother. In her teen years, Renee's Grandmother turned her on to sewing.

In college, Renee made dresses and purses and sold them on Phish tour. It was an incredible time for her, meeting all kinds of creative people from around the world. Renee says she learned a lot from that "lot".

After her twins were born, Renee began to sew again and create fun things for the twins and her friends. They encouraged her to sell her creations. She has always made ornaments for the holidays and now has a blast making fun stuff to sell.

A little more than a year ago, Renee started up a Facebook store called Chic Peach. She specializes in vinyl and paper creations.

OCTOBER 2018 DEMONSTRATOR

Natalie Schorr
Mixed Media Artist

"In all my work, I look for the offbeat, unusual, and less obviously beautiful. I am drawn to the imperfect; it is in that realm that I find authenticity and room for grace."

Thank you, Natalie, for your excellent presentation on printmaking techniques and a demonstration of how to ink a relief and an intaglio plate. Your work is wonderfully unique. We love it!
