Letter From the President

As we say farewell to 2020, I would like to give thanks for our good health so far this year. Hopefully, the coming year will bring each of you good health, love, happiness and prosperity in that order! Our first virtual gallery looks wonderful. If you haven't seen it yet, the link is on Facebook and also included in our website. The art looks fantastic. Along with your contact information a website link can be included for even more exposure.

Virtual member meetings have also gone very well. I know the computer is a challenge for some of our members. However, we will most likely have to continue virtual meetings through the first quarter of 2021 at least. The board evaluates this concern on a monthly basis.

The Zoom paint-in's have also been fun. We will also continue paint-ins starting January 2021. Anyone willing to co-host please contact me.

Keep an eye on our social media- Facebook and Instagram. We will post all the ongoing projects—i.e., Children Connect Christmas Display, Newspaper Boxes.

Be sure to let one of the board members know if you have any other newsworthy events to pass along.

Stay safe. I'm looking forward to seeing you next year either virtually or for real!!

Calling All Artists!

Let's put on a show!

We are looking for members interested in hanging their work in the Peachtree City Library for the months of January and February. If you haven't shown your work there yet, you've been missing out on a great venue. We want to make sure the NCAA grids are filled with our work so sign up now! Contact Barbara Kelly at kellybarbara098@gmail.com and let her know you are interested.

Your Show's On!

Have you visited The Art House Gallery, NCAA's virtual gallery? If not, please do so you can see what we've been up to. We will be sending out forms for the January show soon so be on the look out and come hang with us.

The event is open to members only so please visit our website and re-up so you can join the show.
